Founder gives Heart Walk cancellation statement

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

On the evening of Wednesday, May 22, Jeanette Rogers Erickson expressed the reasoning behind canceling the annual Heart Walk event, which she founded 25 years ago.

She told the Kern Valley Sun that she motioned to stop the Heart Walk, at the Kern Valley Hospital Foundation (KVHF) board meeting, around March or April.

On May 9, the treasurer of the executive board for the foundation, Deborah Hess sent a report for the Kern Valley Healthcare District board, which Chief Information Officer Cary Zuber read, announcing the issue.

Rogers-Erickson candidly said, "I felt like because, and I am not saying this in boasting, but I am probably the primary one who goes out and gets the money because I've been doing it for so many years, from my contacts that I've had, from so many different years. And I can see that I'm not physically going to be able to keep on doing that for a long time. And I said 'We celebrated 25 years. Let's go out on a high note, while it's still bringing in large amounts of money' because as I am unable to go out and ask money for the Heart Walk, I'd like it to go out on a good note."

Rogers-Erickson, who is also the KVHF founder explained that it was sometimes problematic to line things up just right, with regard to use of the school track and the auditorium, kitchen staff, and food sponsorship for the lunch that followed the Heart Walk. "There were a lot of components," she said.

Rogers-Erickson has also been dealing with an illness within her family, and rather than allowing things to dwindle with the Heart Walk, she thought it was best to end it at the 25 year mark. "Let's just end it here and say, good job," she said.

She also knew that she was not going to be able to do as much, next year, as she did this year, because she overly exerted herself to get everything done the last time she planned the huge event.

At this time Rogers-Erickson is hoping the foundation would consider hosting a closing celebration for the Heart Walk. She said, "I would like it to go out on a note of celebration. It was a job well done. The foundation is looking forward to making an announcement of celebration."

According to Hess' previous statement, the Foundation was considering other options for a fundraiser to replace the annual Heart Walk event.

The Kern Valley Sun intends to continue following up on this story.

Corey O'Leary

Kern River Valley, 23 ABC television reporter Corey O'Leary has become quite the local celebrity! Originally from Colorado, this spunky TV reporter has quite a following, due to his comprehensive and entertaining coverage of the Kern River Valley and all that it has to offer.

He was initially introduced to the area when he came up to cover Whiskey Flat Days with his colleague Char Davenport. His next assignment was the devastating Kernville flood last year. Shortly after his coverage of the flood, ABC 23 geographically updated the coverage of the reporters and Corey chose to be assigned to the Kern River Valley. He now resides in Bodfish where enjoys hiking and bicycle riding. But what he enjoys the most is the tranquility of the Isabella Lake shore line.

The new friends and supporters Cory has met during his KRV journey are vast and many but he did want to give a "Shout Out" to some. The Davenport Family, The Zuber Family, Justin Powers and Gary Aranian he said have helped him. He stated the entire community has been very welcoming.

Cory said, "I'm happy because people are giving me ideas, I just Logistically don't have time to do everything but I still want people to reach out to me because nobody knows this community better than the people who live here, right? They can reach out to me on my Facebook or they can email me."

Thank you Cory O'Leary for representing the Kern River Valley. You are appreciated.

Chamber president gives state of Kernville address

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

Orion Sanders, president of the Kernville Chamber of Commerce gave his State of Kernville address, Monday May 20, at the monthly chamber meeting.

The meeting also entailed an election to fill four board of directors seats. There were only four people nominated for the seats and they all won. The board members voted in were: Gary Ananian, Beth Niehaus, Orion Sanders, and Tawnya Torgl.

"Welcome everybody. It's been an interesting year. In the beginning of our year last year, in June, we endured rebuilding after the last year's flood and storms," Sanders said. "We rebuilt and it's back to normal for the most part."

Sanders delved into the main concern of Kernville businesses, saying, "We're still facing some challenges as we try to regain access for our tourists that is vitally important to replace a sense of safety. But the fire season coming up is our biggest

OBITUARIES

Kern Eugene Brewer

It is with great sadness that I announce the passing of my beloved dad, Kern Eugene Brewer. He passed away in Laughlin, Nevada on March 10th, 2024 at the age of 87.

Kern was born in Cumberland Gap, Tennessee on May 23, 1936. He had 9 siblings and lived on a working farm until his teenage years when he moved to Michigan. My dad was a car genius to say the least and landed a job at the Ford Motor company when he was 18. There, he would create and test drive new models for Ford. He met and eventually married my beautiful mom, Joan, in July of 1962. Our family moved to California in 1974 where we remained until he moved to Nevada in recent years. Dad also worked for Firestone and GCR Trucking in Fontana. My mother passed away suddenly on May 22, 1988. When dad retired he moved to Kernville, Ca. We always thought that was a perfect fit!

We called him Pop & my daughters called him Pappy. I know he remembered and loved all of us until the end regardless of what is said. My dad was one of a kind. He was incredibly wise and had a story for everything. He loved the mountains, hiking, exploring and all things in nature. Dad was sharp, funny, always laughing and fun to be with. He wasn't just my dad he was my friend.

Kern is survived by his daughter Libby Salley and son in law Rob Salley of Chino, California. He is also survived by his two beautiful granddaughters Lauryn and Megyn. We will miss him more than we can ever say. His life will be remembered and cherished. My mom and dad will live on through us and no one can take that away.

Sadly, no services were held for my dad. We loved him dearly and pray he is at peace.

Anthony Disco

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Anthony Disco, who is known to us all as Tony Disco. On 05/10/24, Tony was unexpectedly called to be with our Lord and Savior. Tony has been a long-time resident of the Lake Isabella Community for close to 60 years. He attended both Woodrow Wallace Elementary School and graduated from Kern Valley High in 1978. After graduation, Tony pursued his working career at Lake Isabella Hardware for 17 years. Over time, Tony became known as the go-to person when it came to hardware knowledge. With his friendly personality, Tony gained respect from all the frequent loyal customers. As an adolescent growing up here in the valley, Tony recalled many happy memories with his grandparents. One would be getting up at 5:00 am, riding up in his grandfather's truck to the Johnson Dale Mill. There he would help load the bed of the truck with scrap wood to use during the winter months in the fireplace. After filling up the truck, Tony and his Grandfather would drive back down, stopping at their favorite fishing spots. During the summer breaks from school, he and his friends would venture off to the crossings at Erskine Creek and build swimming holes to play and beat the summer heat. He also loved to ride his dirt bike throughout the valley. Tony is loved by many people he touched while being here on earth. There will be a void in many hearts with Tony's passing. We Love You and Will Miss You Dearly. Tony is survived by his mother Roxine Disco, cousin Michael Haas and his wife CeCi, and their children and spouses, son Mikey Haas and his wife Jen, and their children Blakey and Lily, daughter Bethany and her husband Jon, and their children Henry, Charlie, Nora and Cash.

concern. At times it's difficult to understand these processes that the county and everybody is going through; prioritizing repairs and understanding why our safety, I think, is not on top of the priority list. Right now if we had a fire between Kernville and Wofford Heights that took the road out, we would be kind of stuck."

Sanders assured the board and chamber that he had been talking to authorities, attempting to attain answers regarding Sierra Way, the thoroughfare between Weldon and Kernville. "We'll continue to work in support with those agencies and hope for a quick completion. I know it's been dragging on and it's definitely a thorn in everybody's side," he said.

Regarding membership, Sanders said the Kernville Chamber of Commerce continues to build value for local businesses, including the business guide, member spotlights, the chamber website, a renewed effort to maintain the chamber's calendar of events, and annual advertising opportunities. The chamber printed almost double the amount than the previous year, and increased distribution, including at motels. The chamber distributed the guide at a tradeshow in Long Beach, introducing many potential visitors to the valley. Sanders said one huge challenge for the recreation and event center was making tremendous effort to rebuild the encampment. The whole property of the Whiskey Flat Days Encampment for reenactments is 34.67 acres, which the chamber has been turning into a park-like setting.

The chamber is building a new concession booth at the rodeo grounds.

"We replaced the well, the casings were old and failed. We just did that with mayor money from the last Whiskey Flat Days. And we're in the final stages of revising our conditional use permit to include the community dog park as well. This year we'll complete the return calf-roping lane in the rodeo arena, which has been temporary for a long time. This year we plan to get that completely welded in and solid in place," Sanders said.

The chamber also plans to continue its Adopt a Bleacher program and hold a painting day this fall. "We'll try to increase the number of corrals, because high school rodeo needs about another 60 corrals to accommodate high school rodeos coming in the future," Sanders said that rodeos have been bringing in temporary corrals to accommodate. Increasing the number would definitely make the chamber money in the future.

The chamber plans to hold a workday at the Bike Park, in Kernville Saturday, June 8 at 8am, for repairs and upkeep. They need volunteers for this project and are providing lunch, according to the chamber's Facebook page.

The chamber plans to add wrought iron railing to the front of the Chamber of Commerce building, add a handicapped parking space, and devise a fundraiser to repave the parking lot at the chamber building. Sanders expected the project to cost $50,000 to $60,000.

The chamber office has been water damaged, on one wall, which the chamber will repair. And the chamber plans to frame some Whiskey Flat Days artwork.

Regarding Kernville Fall Festival at Circle Park, Sanders said, "We had record breaking people there Saturday for the contests."

Sanders said the Boo-tacular Fun Run, which Sarge's

Wreath's 4 Vets and OnPoint Gym organized was financially successful and should continue next fall.

"Farmers market is going well. I've noticed there was more vendors on a regular basis," said Sanders.

"Christmas at Kernville we had our first tree lighting ceremony, and it was huge. There was a ton of people there," Sanders said. "Trish and her team did a really good job decorating."

Regarding Whiskey Flat Days, Sanders said, "I just signed an agreement for the logo, at a venue down in Los Angeles. So our trademark for Whiskey Flat Days is complete."

The chamber plans to search for grants for recreation and parks.

Gibson and Bryski Students of the Year

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

The Kern Valley Exchange Club awarded two Students of the Year from Wallace Middle School, Thursday May 23, at a luncheon at Paradise Cove Lodge.

The two students the club awarded were Cooper Bryski and Brooke Gibson. Principal Frank Flores from Wallace Middle School told those attending the awards luncheon that both teens are good students and good athletes.

Flores said, "It is definitely our pleasure at the middle school to be here at the exchange luncheon and to honor both. Brooke and Cooper definitely set a really high bar. They set a really great example of what students at the middle school should be."

Wallace Middle School, grade 8 teacher, Amanda Gregg said that the two students were chosen from all the students of the month, from the entire school year. Their leadership qualities, attendance, and participation in various tournaments were all under consideration for the decision of the top boy and girl middle-schoolers of the year. "Both students went above and beyond what all of their peers have done," said Gregg.

Gregg said Brooke Gibson perfectly embodies the Outstanding Middle Schooler of the Year. She keeps her grades high, going above and beyond, even doing extra credit to keep her scores high. She's very persistent, very scholarly, and helpful to her fellow students progressing. She was MVP of her basketball team at school. Gibson was part of ASB and first to volunteer to help whenever needed. Ms. Gregg said, "Take pride in this Outstanding Middle Schooler award that you have earned that is representative of all your incredible hard work that you put in to be excellent in every aspect. I look forward to hearing of all your successes throughout these next four years and the rest of your life."

Principal Flores said regarding Bryski, "Cooper is, in my humble opinion, a natural born leader. He has a strong and clear voice. He's admired and respected by his peers. It was no surprise to me when he was elected to be our ASB president this year. I have heard that Cooper wants to become a fire fighter. I think this is an admirable profession." Flores said he believed Cooper would do well in all he put his mind and efforts towards.

Aside from the leadership qualities, Cooper plays basketball and baseball showing much courage determination on the court. He is already participating in the Kern Valley High School Future Farmers of America (FFA.) He won the Merriam Hume award for academic excellence and service to school and community. He is thoughtful and always ready to help others. He is top of his class.

President of the Kern Valley Exchange Club, John Blythe presented each student with a certificate of recognition, for demonstrating outstanding qualities of leadership in their middle school and a monetary contribution towards their education.

Notorious Entertainment to hold YesterFest

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

The founder of Sarge's Wreaths 4 Vets, and owner of Notorious Entertainment, Orion Sanders is presenting the third annual YesterFest, a Father's Day Tailgate Party, at McNally Arena in Kernville, June 15.

The featured tribute bands will be play offs of several famous bands of the past. Pearl, which is a Janis Joplin tribute performance, will be in the line up among Bad Ass Co, which is a Bad Company tribute band; Creedenced, which is a Creedence Clearwater Revival tribute band, and A Cheaper Trick, which is a Cheap Trick tribute band.

"We wanted to do something that was in the classic rock tribute band genre. And we already had the Rock 'N' Blues Fest and then we did the Country. So we wanted to do something and to bring the music of yesterday. The whole tribute band scene started kind of growing. And so we thought it would be a neat thing to try to bring a one day four band classic rock tribute concert," said Sanders.

"We invite everybody to come out and tailgate and bring their barbeque and their ice chest and their corn hole games or whatever they want to do. Come out and just have a relaxing day. It's Father's Day weekend so we're inviting everyone to come out." Commemorative shot glasses will be prizes, at the front gate, for the first 50 dads that come through the gate.

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

The event will also feature a costume contest called, "Like A RockStar." Sanders said, "dress up like your favorite rock star." There will be swag-bag prizes.

Sanders hopes to sell at least about 300 tickets. He said the event is a full tailgate party, so bring your own food and drinks and chairs to the event.

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

Orion Sanders owner of Notorious Entertainment, founder of Sarge's Wreaths 4 Vets.

The tailgate spaces open at noon, walk-ins start at 1pm, and music goes from 2pm to 9pm. For reservations see NotoriousEnt.net/yesterfest.

Art association to open bookstore, coffee house, anthology reception

CATHERINE STACHOWIAK

Publishers of a new anthology, titled "It Is The Land That Gets Us..." are planning the release for June 15, at 3:30pm. The public is invited to attend the poetry reading reception, hosted at the Kern River Valley Art Association's (KRVAA's) Station building, in Wofford Heights.

According to John Peterson, poet and editor of the art association's anthology, the KRVAA plans to open a bookstore, at the location and a coffee house, which is currently merely a coffee station.

"We really want to encourage the community to come and support their neighbors and see what everybody's doing. I think it will be a really exciting event," Peterson said. "We'll have the coffee house going as well. And I hope we'll have the book store going by then too."

The association is still discussing a name for the upcoming bookstore.

Peterson told the Kern Valley Sun, last Saturday, "Both the coffee house and the bookstore are going to take time to grow. Right now we're waiting on some bookshelves that are supposed to be on their way. So we've got to get them in, get them installed. And then I've got to get my books all down there. And we've got a lot of art books that have come in. And some of those will go in the used book section."

Volunteers of the KRVAA will likely run the coffee station, which is slotted to become a coffee house. And the Kern River Valley Art Association generally needs more volunteers for their various community functions.

"I've got a lot of books to showcase. Plus our new anthology will be featured there," Peterson said.

Awards Night for spring sports caps year for Kern Valley

RAY CONNER

For the last time of the year, Kern Valley athletes gathered with their teammates, coaches, and family members for Awards Night.

This past Thursday the room was filled with athletes from all the sports team at Kern Valley. They were here to put the final touches on the sports year. On this night, the student-athletes would be recognized for their ability to juggle between school work and their sport they played.

By the same token, those athletes from the Broncs and Lady Broncs teams that led their team this season were honored for being the MVP (Most Valuable Player). There were five sets of co-MVP's as the shining of their athletic prowess was too close to call to select just one.

And finally, the Senior Awards were handed out to those athletes showing the right stuff all year. All three awards that were given out were to both a male athlete and a female athlete.

The sheer number of those student athletes that were honored with this award shows how well these young people can multi task. The amount of hours these athletes spend on studying, practicing and getting the required rest they need, spells out their resilience to succeed.

Being named MVP on a team gives high regard as these are usually selected on a vote by the teammates and consideration from their coach. Which in this case saw many too close to call to hand out one they selected five sets of co-MVP's. Both the jayvee softball and jayvee baseball teams selected two athletes to receive the MVP award. In jayvee softball, Avery Valdez and Summer Santos shared being named the MVP. The two athletes from jayvee baseball were Wyatt Blagg and Jackson Price.

The girls track squad and the varsity softball and baseball teams also selected two MVP winners. In track it was the two athletes that went the farthest this season. Both Jayda Bushling and Aspen Hacker made it to the CIF Central Section Masters Meet completed this past Saturday. They clearly deserved to share the honor as MVP. They also selected one athlete who was the most improved on the season. Isabella Escoto was recognized for this honor.

For the varsity softball team, Ava Bates and Audrey Martinez were selected to receive the MVP award. The Most Improved went to Ava Elliott. In varsity baseball it was Seth Stockwell and Zack Wargo sharing the MVP award. The Most Improved varsity baseball player this year was Cameron Thomas.

In boys' track Kyle Espinoza-Denys ran his way to the MVP award. A pair of Most Improved athletes were selected from the boys' track team. These were Christopher Richey and Aiden Rapp.

The Kern Valley golf team which made a comeback this season named Jessie Wagner as the MVP. Most Improved went to Victor Fregoso.

The three Senior Awards handed out were, the Pat Mercier Memorial Award for Outstanding Achievement went to Kayley Sietsma and Kyle Espinoza-Denys. The Kenny Salyer Memorial Award for Sportsmanship went to Ava Bates and Ed Bunting. The final award was the Most Inspirational Award. Alaina

Check and Victor Fregoso were named to this honor.

With the curtains falling on this year for sports at Kern Valley High School, the future looks bright as the athletes continue to want to shine and show their Broncs pride.

“Where are they now” athletes wanted

RAY CONNER
This valley has been rich with athletic talent from way back that moves to the next level and performs well. My hope is to relate that to those here in a way that brings not only significance to said athlete, but the hope of showing others there is a path that they may take.

Do you know anybody that played for Kern Valley and is now playing sports at the next level? I would very much like to have them send me an email kvsunray@gmail.com sharing their info.

This does not have to be college related it could even be a side gig playing sport. Hiking the trails of the world, kayaking down the Colorado, I'm sure they are out there and we here in the Kern River Valley would like to know.

If you did play at the next level, we want to hear about that too. It's always nice to catch up, and remember those that played at Kern Valley and took their wares to the next level. There is no age limit on this either. The valley wants to hear from you, so please contact me and let's get the ball rolling.

Coffman battles back in Mohave Valley dirt

RAY CONNER
Wayne Coffman of Weldon had to make up time in his recent stock car racing adventure in the desert. Coffman made the trip to Mohave Valley Raceway in Arizona on May 18. Things went south at the beginning as according to Coffman they missed the set up. Knowing they needed to right the car to get into the main. Him and his team made some changes and battled back through the field in the B-Main. They came across the line in second which moved them into the starting grid of the Main. Coffman would start back in 18th place. He made advances around the circle of dirt, in actuality clay, and passed cars despite the dusty conditions. Coffman said, “It was a really dusty track and you could barely see the car in front of you.” He used his driving skill to reach eighth place. He would finish in that spot and that was deemed a success from where they had to comeback from. He said, “I ended up eighth overall, which I feel pretty good about with the conditions of the track and no damage to the car.”

Two weeks prior at Mohave Valley, Coffman had the same finish as he crossed the line in eighth place. He got to transfer to the Main by coming in second in his heat race.

Currently, Coffman with his two cars, the IMCA Modifieds and his Super Stocks, are sitting in the top 20 for both divisions. In the modifieds, he is in 20th place with a total of 94 points. The gap is (-)115 points behind the leader. He has four Top-10 finishes in his races. In the Super Stocks Coffman sits in the 14th position in points. This puts Coffman in a (-)135 point gap behind the leader. He has raced to one Top-5 and one Top-10 finish to amass 48 points in this division.

On his home track, Bakersfield Speedway, Coffman is in 13th place in the IMCA Modifieds Division. He has one Top-10 and one Feature, where his points sit at 31. The current gap for Coffman behind the leader in the IMCA Modifieds Division is (-)46. Coffman also has raced at Perris Speedway. A website check does not have current information on the point standings.

Coffman has plans to race on his home track, Bakersfield Speedway starting on June 1. He will then race again on June 15, and then again on Fireworks Night on June 28.

Matter of Opinion

Back in the saddle, but still lacking the full gallop

RAY CONNER
It's been three months now since I returned to the Kern Valley Sun as a sports writer. In that time, I have seen some good changes and some things that remain the same. Being back in the (sports) saddle is something I really do like to be in.
There have been many positives for the sports. Most coaches get me the info in a timely manner. This makes it real easy to show how the valley athletes are making names for themselves in a variation of sports. Some others, well not so much. I really do hope in the future this can change.
There are many stories that go unwritten because the info does not get to where it needs to be. There are so many sports type things that happen in the Kern River Valley, yet I get confused as to why the info doesn't make its way to me. I make myself and my email available to all.

I even get texted info that helps me show the athletic prowess of individuals in the KRV. If you want to text me, email me at kvsunray@gmail.com, or if you have sports info, that is the best way to reach me. We then can share phone numbers and keep in contact.
I've always prided myself on getting as many names on the sports pages as possible. This is evident by the new make shift office and the pile of papers with information and names of athletes that have built up in it.
One of the ways I try and grab info is making a post on Facebook. There is a group Kern River Valley News & Community info that allows me to express to the valley the need for sports info. I'm certainly glad that group is available and they allow me the opportunity to express the need for people in this valley to be recognized.
I know I've said this before, but I feel very fortunate for this new/old opportunity. I really do like the direction the paper is headed and I'm really proud that the sports pages have varied interests. Heck, if there was a tiddly-wink tournament, I'd do a story on that. That might be too dated for some that might read this, but I know you can all Google it and become that much more informed. Much the same way, I'd like to be kept informed on the valley sports world to present it here in this forum.

To some this might sound like begging, but in reality, it's just a call for action. Get me the info and you might even get your 15 minutes (actually one week between issues) of fame. Well that is a Matter of Opinion.

The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 3909 SECLUSION ROAD, LAKE ISABELLA, CA 93240 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (844) 477-7869 or visit this Internet Web site WWW.STOXPOSTING.COM, using the file number assigned to this case 120467-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 120467-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
